

Year 10 Geography Curriculum:

Year 10
Topic/Unit title	Challenges in the human environment: Urban issues and challenges		Living with the physical environment: UK Landscapes			Challenges in the human environment: Changing economic world.
Big Questions	What are the urban issues and challenges as cities grow? Lagos, Nigeria	What are the urban issues and challenges as cities grow? Portsmouth, UK	Why are UK landscapes so dynamic?	Why are coastal landscapes so dynamic?	How do rivers change and shape the landscape over time and space?	What causes countries to be at different levels of development?
NC Links	Human Geography – LIC/NEE urbanisation and population. Locational knowledge, use of maps and globes. Human geography – Migration and population patterns. Statistics and maps.	Human Geography – HIC urbanisation and population. Locational knowledge, use of maps and globes. Human geography – Migration and population patterns. Statistics and maps.	Physical processes including rocks, weathering, soils. Physical processes linked to water and ice and influences on landscapes. Use of OS maps.	Physical processes including rocks, weathering, soils. Coastal processes and erosion. Use of OS maps.	Physical processes including rocks, weathering, soils. Fluvial processes and erosion. Use of OS maps.	Locational and place knowledge. Human and physical interactions changing environments. Human geography – International development, map, and atlas skills. Comparing HICs and LICs with geographical models (DTM).
Assessments	Variety of exam questions used as CFU Mid unit assessment (exam questions)	Variety of exam questions used as CFU End of unit assessment (exam questions)	Variety of exam questions used as CFU	Variety of exam questions used as CFU Mid unit assessment (exam questions)	Variety of exam questions used as CFU End of unit assessment (exam questions)	Variety of exam questions used as CFU